FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Camelot Carpet Cleaners, Father-Son Business, Grows in Pawley's Island

Business owner, and Pawley's Island resident, Cameron Ward expanded the business he founded in 2010 to include his son, Maverick Ward, and the family business will now offer service to Pawley's Island and Georgetown County.

Cameron started cleaning carpet and upholstery in 2000, and Camelot Carpet Cleaners now boasts more than 3,700 clients, residential and commercial.

Maverick is a graduate of Waccamaw High School in Pawley's Island. He studied Exercise Science briefly at the University of South Carolina in Aiken, before realizing his true passion was to be part of the family business.

The Ward men and Camelot Carpet Cleaners clean installed carpet, upholstery, and tile and grout. Working cooperatively with Casablanca Rugs and Carpet of Pawley's Island, Camelot Carpet Cleaners offers service for area rugs, both hand and machine made Oriental style, braided, hooked, flat weaves, and many more.

Cameron Ward, a Master Textile Cleaner, certified with the IICRC (Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification), said his son will be available for all aspects of the business.

"We are expanding and I need help," joked the elder Ward. "I am not getting any younger, and this is a physically demanding profession. I am blessed that I have someone eager to work and learn, someone I can trust to help keep up with the increasing work load."
